Day 2

Dublin City, Co. Dublin

Dublin is one of Europe's most vibrant cities. Over a thousand years old, the turbulent history and rich traditions of the city have inspired writers, artists and musicians down the ages. Today, artists are still attracted by Dublin's youthful enthusiasms and easy-going lifestyle and the city has become a thriving center of culture and enjoyment. The new wave of cafes and restaurants are meeting places for all ages while traditional Dublin pubs are rightly world-famous for their informal atmosphere and lively conversation. The city oozes atmosphere, not least in the heady scents that cling to it – the rich aroma of the hops being roasted in the Guinness brewery and the salty tang of the sea. Nighttime entertainment is a rich mix of world-class theater, concerts from classical to rock, jazz clubs, traditional music sessions and old-style cabaret.

Above all, Dublin is a small city, where visitors can feel at home after even the shortest stay.

Hop-On/Hop-Off: Dublin

The easiest way to go sightseeing in Dublin - hit all of the major attractions, and travel at your own pace. The buses operate 9am-5pm every day, regularly stopping around the city. Major stops include:

Trinity College/The Book Of Kells

National Art Gallery

St. Stephen's Green

Temple Bar

St. Patrick's Cathedral

Guinness Storehouse

...and more!

Guinness Storehouse

The Guinness Storehouse is Dublin's most visited attraction and the home of one of Ireland's best-known brands. Learn about the history of "the black stuff", pull your own pint, and enjoy The Gravity Bar's stunning panoramic views. Visit the home of Ireland's oldest and most popular beer. This brewery experience tells the tale of Ireland's signature beer, with tastings and a rooftop bar overlooking Dublin.

EPIC: The Irish Emigration Museum

EPIC: the Irish Immigration Museum tells the moving and unforgettable stories of those who left the island of Ireland, and how they influenced and shaped the world. EPIC embraces the past and the future with 1,500 years of Irish history and culture housed in its atmospheric vaults. The world's only fully digital museum, experience this breathtaking story in state-of-the-art interactive galleries, complete with touch screens, motion sensor quizzes and a feast of powerful audio and video that bring Irish history to life. Watch characters from the past tell one-of-a-kind tales of adventure and perseverance, conflict and discovery, belief and community

Day 3

Travel to Galway

After checking out of your Dublin hotel, journey to Galway by train, where you will spend the next three nights.

Galway City, Co. Galway

Galway city is the gateway to the west of Ireland with the beautiful Connemara Gaeltacht area on its doorstep. Galway is rich in Irish culture and offers visitors a warm welcome and a promise that one visit will never be enough! The historic city of the tribes dances to a beat uniquely it's own. Music, festivals, horse racing, pubs, restaurants, shops, theatres and most of all Galway people, combine to create this atmospheric mediaeval city of culture.

STS Preferred 4-star Hotel

Settle into comfort and style with a carefully selected 4-star hotel, where a warm Irish welcome meets thoughtful touches throughout your stay. Each property offers a relaxed yet refined atmosphere — the perfect base to unwind after a day of exploring.

Day 4

Connemara Public Day Tour from Galway

This tour takes a look into traditional way of life on the West coast of the Emerald Isle along with the history that has shaped the region. Be prepared to learn a bit of the Irish language and to hear a few tales of the local residents!

This full day, guided tour has been designed to showcase the best of the west of Ireland, providing an immersive experience that encapsulates the essence of this enchanting region. As you travel from Galway City, listen to your expert driver/guide share the origin of the Irish language and how it is still the native language of Connemara, despite its diminishing status in the rest of Ireland.

From the rugged beauty of the 12 Bens Mountain Range to the serenity of Connemara's lakes, from encounters with native Connemara Ponies and sheep to the charm of traditional thatched cottages, every moment is an invitation to savour the authentic rural beauty of Ireland.

Delving deeper into Connemara, the tour unveils the awe-inspiring Kylemore Abbey and its historic estate, allowing you to step back in time. As you venture into Irish-speaking rural areas, you'll gain a genuine sense of the nation's linguistic and cultural heritage.

This tour is a perfect choice for anyone seeking to experience an authentic and immersive experience of Ireland's diverse landscapes and fascinating heritage.

Day 5

Galway Food Tour
